SAN JOSE, Calif. - Think Digital, Inc.'s Skin City documentary film will conclude principal photography during the week of the AVN Adult Entertainment Expo in Las Vegas.

Based on the book Skin City by Jack Sheehan, the feature-length documentary throws open the doors of VIP rooms, high-roller suites, casino executive offices and City Hall to reveal how eroticism is marketed and sold by Las Vegas.

Personalities featured in the film include Jenna Jameson, Krystal Steele, Seymore Butts, Brooke Hunter, Mary Carey, and Veronica Hart, as well as Las Vegas insiders such as Sheriff Bill Young, Mayor Oscar Goodman, and Billy Vassiliadis, whose company is behind the slogan, "What happens here, stays here."

The Skin City documentary crew will be filming at the AVN Expo as a new Skin City paperback is being launched worldwide by Harper Collins. To mark the launch of his book, Sheehan will appear in the Harper Collins booth at Internext 2006 on January 6.

During the rest of the convention, Sheehan will conduct interviews with some of the adult film stars and entertainment executives who make the AVN Expo one of the most exciting and colorful conventions in the world.

"We are very excited to be returning to the AVN Expo and Internext 2006, where we launched the Skin City documentary a year ago," says Greg Berkin, CEO and Founder of Think Digital. "With more than 100 hours of Skin City footage in the can, Think Digital has amassed the world's largest library of high-definition behind-the-scenes footage of adult entertainment in Las Vegas. We are looking forward to the challenge of cutting this goldmine into an award-winning feature film."

Think Digital continues to offer opportunities to both individuals and corporations to participate in the Skin City production. Interested parties should contact Think Digital's corporate offices at (408) 729-8500 or skincity@thinkdigital.tv.
